

THIS WEEKEND, NOVEMBER 18 & 19:

THERE ARE A FEW THINGS GOING ON THIS WEEKEND DURING/AFTER MASSES.

- Fr Steve is back but Fr Hess is still helping out so don't think that just because you see one, doesn't mean the other isn't also around.
- This weekend at Mass, you're going to find out about a gift we have for you—access to FORMED. This will give you and your family access to faith studies, movies, podcasts—all kinds of things, at any time you want to get to them.
- Women's Chorus Rehearsal is in Rm 9 between the Sunday Masses. All women are invited to join in—practice is for the Dec 10, 8:30 am Mass.
- Catholic Daughters are sponsoring a free will bake sale. Stop by and treat yourself!
- Phil Kohler drew on Fr Steve's memory of a Christmas card showing St Joseph holding baby Jesus while Mary took a well-deserved nap to carve this year's nativity set for Catholic Charities. Check it out and then take a chance on owning it—tickets are $10.
- We need our hostesses for Sounds of the Season (Dec.10) so we can begin selling individual tickets on Nov 25.

Note: Hostesses, we need the names and the money for your guests by November 21 so we don't double-book seats!

- Family Promise has a few slots left to fill and not a moment too soon—our guests will be here Nov 26! We are also looking for an individual/couple/family to share coordinating duties for these 4 times a year events. Need more info? Contact Becky, becky@olih.org in the office.
- Hospitality Committee members are on hand to register newcomers and answer questions about the parish.

AND GOING ON AROUND OLIH THIS WEEKEND—

- 1) Congratulations to Mikayla Pick & Jon Landhauser as they begin their married life this Saturday.
- 2) The Pre-K/Kindergarten classes meet this weekend. They will then meet again on December 3.
- 3) Our 2nd Graders are celebrating the Rite of Enrollment on Sunday afternoon. First step on their way to their First Communion!
- 4) Make sure you get a bulletin—you'll see more information on Formed and on our upcoming Advent Fair and St Nick's party.
